

‘Beauty Products From Out of This World’ is a space themed collection of sketches that are a humorous exaggeration of how makeup boosts our self-confidence, and a twist on our human obsession with beauty; even aliens have trouble feeling pretty some days! Through various amounts of eyes, ears, and mouths, these distorted characters are featured with fragments of dialogue to invite the reader into their realm. Carefully rendered with graphite, these drawings exhibit a unique style that compliments the subject matter.

The zine is a 8.5"x11" booklet of photocopied images on magenta & ivory copy paper. It contains 18 image pages, 20 in total. Staple-bound (in blue). Each edition and copy number hand written.

All original content belongs to the artist.